
The North Carolina Paralegal Association, Inc. (“NCPA”) is a not-for-profit corporation, formed for the purpose of promoting and enhancing the paralegal profession in the state of North Carolina and throughout the United States of America. We are governed by a group of volunteer paralegals. The primary goals of NCPA are:

SERVE

Assist our members with resources, education and information necessary to provide high quality legal services.

TEACH

Make available to paralegals formal education and continuing legal education to gain knowledge and experience.

BUILD

Develop relationships with attorneys and other legal professionals in North Carolina in order to elevate the profession.
LEARN
Conduct research in order to continually define the parameters of the paralegal profession as the profession evolves.

SHARE

Promote our talents and skills to the community. Participate in activities and events which exhibit our strengths.

GROW

Take an active role in bringing new paralegals into NCPA. Ensure the future of our organization through recruitment and retention.

We embrace these principles and values, and pledge to strive for excellence in our profession through the adherence to this mission statement.
